Donna - Thanks so much for your response! Jacque Otts on GENie was inquiring & will get his address for you. Its very likely my Bailey's and the Wyatt Bailey line of AL are related as the family names are common, i.e., Wesley, Wyatt, Green, etc.

Jacque is searching for info on Barnabus Turner Bailey b. in SC, moved to Bibb Co., AL, died in Perry Co., AL. A researcher had told him B. T. Bailey's parents were Wyatt Bailey & Margaret Carter. Definitely your line!

Jacque lives in Tuscaloosa so maybe you can meet in Birmingham - but wait until a week when I can go over & visit my neice who lives in Helena. Birmingham has a great genealogy library & I love to go there.

Will be back in touch shortly.

Dear Betty:

Re: Bailey

Thank you for forwarding the Bailey will I had ordered from the Georgia Archives. I had wondered what was taking it so long. Probably still would not have received it except for your thoughtfulness.

I am just getting started on researching Bailey and have ordered the Bailey wills from Coweta County and one from Elbert County. Am finding it is just another common name. My big interest is my Morgan line. My great grandfather, Willis Morgan, married Bethany Bailey (Delamothe) a widow. His brother, Henry Morgan, married Elizabeth Bailey (Dennis) also a widow and sister of Bethaney. By chance a distant cousin who still lives in Georgia found the will of John Bailey, father of Bethany, on the same roll of film as our Willis Morgan's will. That's about all I know on Bailey. I ordered the will of Jeremiah Bailey of Coweta County, Ga. He was a brother to our John and named wife, Sally; so I ordered the will of Sarah Ann. John had a son, Ezekiel, so I ordered that will of Elbert Co. No connection. Jeremiah had a daughter Bethany too.

Am enclosing a resume I made of John Bailey. There was such a large family some may have drifted to Mississippi. Should you see any connection with the ones in your area at any time I'd appreciate hearing. So far, I haven't found any of your lines that I recall. There were lots of Clarks there I know.

My lines in Georgia are: Morgan, Woodley, Bailey, Anderson, Ellis, Bagby, Bell, Bynum, Moseley, Dennis, to name a few. Have established William Ellis, James Bell as Revolutionary Soldiers. Am stuck on the father of Matthew Anderson who married Frances Ellis. Find these families in Wilkes, Oglethorpe, Elbert, Monroe, Old Campbell, and Pike and Carroll Counties. Would like to spend another week at the Ga. Archives.

I belong to the Dallas Genealogical Society and volunteer in the Genealogy Dept. of our Irving Library. Good to hear from another Genealogy Bug. Thanks again.

Best wishes,

Dear "Cousins":

It has been quite heartwarming to have so many of the Bailey Clan interested enough to contribute funds to restore and protect the Bailey Family Cemetery on the old Bailey estate in Amelia County, Virginia, and information to assemble a listing of the descendants of Benjamin Bailey - 1755 to 1813 - the head of the clan.

The total cost of the cemetery restoration was more than at first anticipated because three crumbling white marble stones needed to be replaced. The solite wall cost $250; the three stones, $115; clearing the lot, $10, or a total cost of $375. Forty-nine contributed sums ranging from $25. to $1. The total contributions came to $325.50, leaving a balance of $49.50, some of which has been promised. It would be in order to mention here that the children of Alice Bailey Mottley contributed $102 of the $325.50. Thanks to each of you who contributed from the rest of us. In addition to the above, the amount of $18.00 was incurred for stencils and paper to prepare this listing.

An expression of appreciation is also due to the various family representatives who spread the word, collected funds, and prepared family data. Thanks to each. Special mention should be made of the several who have gone far beyond the call of duty. We extend thanks to:

- (1) Virginia Clarke Norton for typing and duplication of these records.
- (2) Louise Rowlett Wingo and her husband, Clifton Wingo, who shared in the planning and supervised the construction of the solite wall enclosing the cemetery.
- (3) Virgie Skelton Willis who was a go-between for several families, and who shared many trips to conduct business relative to the project.
- (4) John Vic Bailey who spread the word to the two branches of the family who live in Mississippi and sent contributions and family information from them all.

The records are not entirely complete. Names and dates are missing in a good many areas, a fact which is regrettable. On the other hand, it is surprising that after so many years so much accurate information could be assembled. Believing that the most accurate information would come from the families themselves, we have faithfully tried to copy facts as they were prepared by the family representatives. Records from family Bibles, the Clerk's Office records of marriage, population listings from the Archives of the State Library, and records from tombstones have been used to fill in missing data or verify or correct questioned bits.

Persons contributing $2. or more will receive copies. There are a few excess copies which may be had for $1. plus postage.

If there are errors, please correct them, and please, beginning where this record leaves off, add the records of your family as it grows and changes.

I shall be glad to discuss the facts in the project and to share the many "side lights" of the family history which I heard as this was assembled, with any one or any group who will visit me at 1106 Foxcroft Road, Richmond 29, Virginia.

May those of you who review this record enjoy it as much as I have enjoyed helping to prepare it!

With the best wishes, I am all for the Baileys; may their Clan increase!

Bessie M. Mottley

FOREWORD

This paper is prepared to show one line of descendants of Benjamin Bailey and his wife, Ann Elizabeth Watkins, whose son, Jeremiah Bailey, married Mary W. Anderson. There is evidence that Jeremiah was not their only child, but he is our ancestor.

A little of the family background of these early ancestors will be in order.

Family records state that the King of England granted to one of Benjamin Bailey's ancestors a grant of land in Augusta County, Virginia. They are said to be of English and Scotch descent. Benjamin Bailey was born in Augusta County in 1755, was later given two grants of land in Montgomery County where as a young man 23 years of age, he was sworn in as First Lieutenant of the Virginia Militia in the Revolutionary War by the Montgomery County Court on May 13, 1778. He served under W. Bobbit according to McAllister's Virginia Militia in the Revolutionary War.

It is believed that he met Ann Elizabeth Watkins in Chesterfield County, Virginia, during the War. They were married in 1783, and at the close of the War, Benjamin Bailey migrated to Chesterfield County in the general vicinity of "Clover Hill Coal Pits."

Others of our ancestors in these early generations were Jordon Anderson who had an interest in the "Clover Hill Pits," his wife Margaret Easter and their daughter, Mary W. Anderson. Margaret Easter was born and reared in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, near the first location of the Randolph Macon School for Men. She was sister to the famous Methodist preacher John Easter. The Easter home in Mecklenburg County was the center of early Methodism in the State and extended its influence to many other counties, including Amelia County. Both of Margaret's brothers, John and Thomas, became preachers.

McTyeire's History of Methodism, page 312, states, "John Easter was the most powerful preacher of his day." The minutes of the church record ten appointments which he held. He was the first Methodist preacher assigned to Richmond City, date 1784. His eighth appointment in 1789 was Amelia County, Virginia. His family connections, including Margaret's descendants became leaders in organizing and supporting the Methodist Church in Amelia, too.

From these Easter ancestors the family inherited a religious fervor which is shown by the facts given below. Jeremiah Bailey became a trustee of a gift of land from Mr. Walthall, "a triangular acre more or less, bounded by the Walthall Shop and the Five Forks Road in Amelia," to be a place of worship for Methodism. The deed stating these facts is found in Deed Book 27 at Amelia Clerk's Office and dated April 4, 1824. He died a year and five days later, apparently leaving the work unfinished.

It appears to be the same spot on which the first tiny chapel for Methodist worship was located some time before 1847.

In 1847, Benjamin Watkins Bailey, Thomas Wilson Rowlett (preacher husband of Mary Frances Bailey), and James Anderson -- all members of the family -- became three of the trustees of the site for the Methodist Trinity Church in Amelia. All of Benjamin Bailey's fifteen children are said to have been members of this Church. Some of his descendants have always been leaders there.

Members of the family, descendants of Mary Frances Bailey Rowlett, have always been leaders in Moore's Methodist Church, the first Methodist church in Amelia. Jeremiah and his family worshipped there until the Amelia Church was organized.

The family life span according to the records seems rather remarkable. A great many have gone beyond the "three score and ten years." Jeremiah Bailey was drowned in a James River spring flood April 9, 1825 at the age of 41 years, nearly six months before his youngest daughter was born. Mary Anderson Bailey was 88 when she died; her daughter Mary Frances Bailey Rowlett lived to be 93. Benjamin Watkins Bailey was 85; Ann Elizabeth Bailey Binns, 83; Lily Bailey Skelton, 96; and Julian Wallace, 89.

Among our clan now living are too many who have passed the "three score and ten" to name them. However, Lester Wallace is now 92; Robert Royal Barnes is 90 and quite active; and Cora Bailey Mottley is 90 and going strong.

The first generation includes Benjamin Bailey and Ann Elizabeth Watkins, Jordon Anderson and Margaret Easter; the second generation includes Jeremiah Bailey and Mary W. Anderson.

Notice how often the names Ann, Elizabeth, Watkins, Jordon, Mary and Benjamin have been given to their descendants.

Jeremiah Bailey and his wife Mary Anderson Bailey are buried in the restored cemetery on the land they owned in Amelia County, Virginia.

Many more facts are known and would be interesting, but time and space is limited.

Bailey, Oscar L., M. D., a leading physician and surgeon of Ocean Springs, Jackson county, merits recognition among other representative members of his profession whose names appear in this compilation. The Doctor was born in Conehatta, Newton county, Miss., Jan. 12, 1870, and is a son of Dr. John B. and Josephine (Day) Bailey, the former of whom was born in Alabama and the latter in Newton county, Miss. The father has long been one of the leading medical practitioners of Newton county and is still engaged in practice at Conehatta. Dr. Oscar L. Bailey completed the curriculum of the public schools and was early led to formulate definite plans for preparing himself for the profession which has been signally honored and dignified by the services of his father, under whose preceptorship he gained his initial knowledge of the sciences of medicine and surgery. He then was matriculated in the St. Louis college of Physicians and Surgeons, in St. Louis, Mo., in which old and well ordered institution he completed the prescribed course and was graduated as a member of the class of 1892, with the degree of Doctor of Medicine. He served his professional novitiate by engaging in practice in his native town, Conehatta, and later was located in Lake, Scott county, whence he came to Ocean Springs in 1897, since which time he has been in general practice at this place, having built up a large and representative business. He is president of the Jackson county medical society, and is also identified with the Mississippi State medical association and the American medical association. He was one of the promoters and organizers of the Ocean Springs State bank, which opened its doors for business March 27, 1905, and which has received a representative support from the start. Dr. Bailey is president of the bank, which is incorporated with a capital of $15,000, Frederick M. Weed is vice-president, and Alfred L. Staples, cashier. The Doctor is a stalwart adherent of the Democratic party, but his interest in public affairs is of a broad and liberal sort and not hedged in by partisanship. He is county health officer and holds a similar office for the city of Ocean Springs, while he is president of the board of education and is assistant acting surgeon in the marine hospital service of the government. He is a Knight Templar Mason, a noble of the Mystic Shrine, a member of the Knights of Pythias, and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, while his religious faith is that of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. On Jan. 2, 1895, Dr. Bailey was united in marriage to Miss Berdie Anderson, daughter of A. R. Anderson, of Edwards, Hinds county, Miss., and they have four children, Beryl, Bemiss, Clothilde and Salome. Bemise, John Harrison, physician, educator, college president, was born in 1856 in Louisville, Ky. In 1878-83 he made a study of leprosy on the island of Maui, on which he prepared several valuable papers. He was the first president of the New Orleans polyclinic. He died in 1897 at Ocean Springs, Miss. Bliss, William Wallace Smith, soldier, was born in August, 1815, in Whitehall, N.Y. During the Mexican war he was chief of staff to General Taylor; and took an active part in the engagements of Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Monterey and Buena Vista. In appreciation of his conduct as a soldier, the state of New York presented him with a gold medal; and for gallant service he was brevetted lieutenant-colonel. In 1849-50 he was private secretary to President Taylor, whose youngest daughter he married. He died Aug. 5, 1853, in East Pascagoula, Miss. Physicians

DR. OSCAR L. BAILEY, Ocean Springs, president of the Jackson County Medical Association (1937), and a member of the staff of Jackson County Hospital, merits recognition among other representative members of his profession. Born in Conehatta, Newton County, January 12, 1870, a son of Dr. John B. and Josephine (Day) Bailey, his father was one of the leading practitioners of that county. Dr. Oscar L. Bailey completed the curriculum of the public schools, and in early life formulated definite plans for preparing himself for the profession which has been signally honored and dignified by the services of his father, under whose preceptorship he gained his initial knowledge of the sciences of medicine and surgery. He matriculated in the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons, in St. Louis, Missouri, receiving his degree of Doctor of Medicine, in the class of 1892.

He served his professional novitiate by practice in his native town, Conehatta, and was later located in Lake, Scott County, from whence he came to Ocean Springs in 1897, where he has since done general practice, and built up a large and lucrative business. In addition to his prominence in Jackson County, he is identified with the Mississippi Medical Association and the American Medical Association. As president of the Ocean Springs Bank, he was one of the promoters and organizers of this institution, which opened for business March 27, 1925, and which is incorporated with a capital of $15,000. Although the doctor is a stalwart adherent of the Democratic Party, his interest in public affairs is broad and liberal, not hedged in by partisanship. He was county health officer (see Chap. 22, Health) and holds a similar office in Ocean Springs. He was president of the Board of Education and is assistant acting surgeon in the Marine Hospital service of the government.

He is a Knight Templar Mason, a noble of the Mystic Shrine, a member of the Knights of Pythias, and the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, while his religious faith is that of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Because of his success in numerous medical and surgical cases, Dr. Bailey was offered many high positions in the medical world, but these he always refused, saying that his people in Jackson County needed him. He has always treated rich and poor alike, regardless of compensation. On January 2, 1895, Dr. Bailey was united in marriage to Miss Birdie Anderson, daughter of A. R. Anderson, of Edwards, Hinds County, and they have four children: Beryl, Bennis, Clothile and Salome. (1)
